[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 12.

The President and the Secretary of War.

NEW YORK, August 7.—The Herald's special says Stanton's removal is still the absorbing topic of conversation. There is much speculation as to what will next transpire. It is said that Seward does not entirely favor the action of the President. He and Thurlow Weed are about to strive to save Stanton's head. Years ago when it was thought of removing Stanton, Wood and Raymond's influence with Seward's entire cabinet induced the President to abandon the idea. Now it is said that Stanton has been deliberately thwarting the President and obstructing his policy in every way, and insulting the President in his official intercourse. The President has determined to tolerate this no longer.

The Tribune says the President is not fully satisfied that he can remove Stanton under the tenure of office bill, but thinks he can suspend him and put some one else exercising the duties of the office. The latter point was submitted to Cabinet to-day. They agreed that the President could so suspend. The President therefore notifies Stanton that he will hold no further official relation with him, and that he cannot be admitted to Cabinet meetings.

Grant expressed the opinion that Sheridan would not be removed. The President is again solicited to advise against such a step. It is known, however, that the President still persists in his intention to displace Gen. Sheridan.

Gen Grant says the duties of Hancock and Thomas cannot be interrupted at present without detriment to the service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Intelligencer says that while Stanton is permitted to remain in office, his present official relations must exist. The statement that the President has refused to hold further communication with him is incorrect. It don't follow, however, that he will be invited into Cabinet meetings. This is a matter left in the President's discretion. There is no doubt of the fact that the President's friends assert that he is taking this course to secure a unity of political views in the Cabinet.

There seems to be no prospect of the Surratt jury agreeing.

The diplomatic correspondence between Seward and Romero is published, in which Seward acknowledges the receipt of a letter from Santa Anna stating that he went ashore voluntarily.

The Haytian Constitution recently abolished the death sentence for political offences.

The forthcoming statement of the public debt will show considerable reduction as compared with last month owing to heavy receipts from Internal Revenue. The official statement shows the total debt, August 1, to be $2,680,655,596 39, less $175,370,491 38 cash in the Treasury. The decrease is $4,396,670 of debt bearing coin interest, with a decrease of over $76,000,000 of the debt bearing currency interest. The whole debt has decreased nearly $80,000,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The Herald's special says: The President has been expecting Stanton to resign for over a year. The breach has been daily growing wider until it is believed Stanton could not remain Cabinet much longer. As his resignation was not offered, the President wrote a note formally requesting it. This he delayed sending for a long time, but yesterday it was delivered to Stanton. Should the Secretary decline to yield, the President will undoubtedly remove him, believing the nature of office bill justifies him in doing so. Stanton being the appointee of Lincoln and not Johnson. It is not decided who shall succeed Stanton. Probably Grant will be called to act temporarily, the President considering this the wisest course. The friends of Stanton say the latter declares he will not resign. If the President wishes to get rid of him he must do so by violating the law and removing him. Johnson men assert that the President will suspend or remove him if he refuses to yield. The contemplated removal of Sheridan is lost sight of until the Stanton question is settled. Stanton is preparing a reply to the President's note.

The President unequivocally denies the finding of the Court in the assassination trial submitted to the Cabinet. He says the official record presented to him by Gen. Holt was signed in his presence. At that time no recommendation for the commutation of Mrs. Surratt's sentence was attached to the papers. In Ben. Pitman's report of the trial everything appears except the recommendation for commutation. Pitman used the records by permission of Stanton. Pitman introduced the Secretary's book, which contained all the orders and rulings, documents, etc., connected with the trial in the War Department. His recommendation is attached at the end of all the other documents, after the President's approval. The findings of the Court and recommendation for commutation are not in the handwriting of Bingham, as is alleged.

Gov. Parsons Supports Sheridan

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The Times' special says: Gov. Parsons of Alabama opposes the removal of Sheridan, believing it is now too late for any advantage.

Indian Fight on the Plains.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—The Republican's special dispatch from Fort Hayes of August 3d, says: Capt. Ames with fifty men, overtook the Indians who murdered seven men and stole the stage stock on Saline river. They fought them. The Indians outnumbered two hundred under the command of ten white men. One of our men was killed, and Capt. Ames was wounded. Five savages were slain. The balance escaped with the stock. Two large bodies of Indians appeared at the Fort this morning. There is scarcely a corporal's guard of troops in the country. A sergeant and thirty men went out yesterday to reinforce Ames, who is still absent, and much uneasiness is felt in consequence. Another account says Ames finding the Indians too strong, fell back with six or seven men wounded.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 7.—There was a meeting of the Indian Commissioners yesterday. Colonel Taylor, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, was elected permanent Chairman of the Board and A. S. White of the Indian Bureau, Secretary. It is was a general discussion of plans for getting the Indians together. Nothing was determined upon. Probably no attempt will be made to assemble the northern Cheyennes, the Sioux, Blackfeet and other northern hostile tribes on the Platte river, and the southern tribes at a point on the Arkansas river. It is deemed important to meet the Indians as soon as possible; and as the assemblage in Council during the fall moon, is meeting cannot take place till September, as the next full moon will be in seven days and the Commissioners will not have time to communicate with the several tribes. The Board will examine the Western country and select a reservation for hostile tribes and others west of the Mississippi river. The Commissioners present were Colonel Taylor, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Harney and Senator Henderson.

Gen. Terry, at last accounts, was at Redwing, Minnesota. He will join the Commissioners on the plains. There is another council to-day.

An Omaha dispatch says the Crows, Sioux and Shoshonees have driven the miners from South Pass and killed one man. Two others are missing.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.—The Indian Commissioners sat with closed doors; no reporters admitted. The following proceedings yesterday are made public. It is agreed that General Sherman and Col. Tappan should communicate with the officers and agents under their control, directing them to send runners among the Indians in the vicinity of their respective posts and agencies of the northern tribes, who are to meet the Commissioners at Fort Larimie South of the Platte river, to assemble at Fort Larned, Arkansas river, at full moon in October. Annuities and goods now in transit for the Cheyennes, Arapajoes and Camanches were ordered sent to the agents of these tribes, with instructions concerning Indian affairs. Col. Tappan and Gen. Sanborn are made purchasing commissioners of supplies. The Board then adjourned to meet on Monday next, and then proceed to Omaha, whence they will ascend the Missouri river to its highest accessible point and confer with all the Indians they can meet and also examine lands for a northern reservation.

Gen Sherman instructs Gens Hancock and Augur to confine their military operations, pending the action of the Commissioners, to the protection of the routes of travel and settlements. To Hancock he says "Don't invade the country south of the Arkansas river, except in pursuit of a party guilty of hostile acts. I want the deliberations of the Commission to be as little disturbed by acts of our troops as possible, so that the effort to settle the Indian question peaceably, may have a fair chance of success."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1867.

King Andy will not Tolerate Opposition.

The dispatches show that the acting President is determined to get rid of the only remaining Cabinet Minister who has proved faithful to the country. He complains that the Secretary of War has opposed his wishes and thwarted his purposes. This is equivalent to saying that Mr Stanton has not forsaken the principles he held during the administration of Mr. Lincoln; that his convictions of duty have induced him to stand by the loyal majority of the nation instead of going over to those who have been defeated in their criminal attempt to destroy the country, and that in spite of the recreancy of his superior he has endeavored to carry out the will of a loyal and victorious people. The acting President has found Mr. Stanton an obstacle in the way of his law-defying schemes and now proposes to rid himself of the only check which the Cabinet has offered to his designs. It is certain that the Secretary has been endeavoring in good faith to enforce the reconstruction law. Johnson has been doing his utmost to nullify it and impede its operations, and when the latter says that the former has been thwarting his plans, he simply means that the Secretary has been doing his duty, while he himself has not. This is the whole matter. The stubborn egotist who occupies the Presidential office is fully determined that our nations difficulties shall not be settled during his term. It does not please him that everything is in process of settlement, simply because the adjustment is not to be made on the terms he prescribes,—terms which would disgrace the nation and endanger its future peace. No doubt he will next quarrel with General Grant, and arraign that officer for "thwarting" his designs. It would be well for this obstructer to remember that he has a master. It will be but a short time till Congress meets, and if he continues to throw obstacles in the way of reconstruction, it will not be too late for that body to have recourse to the one sharp and effectual remedy, though in the last year of his term.

Willamette University.

The annual catalogue of Willamette University for the Academic year 1866-7, is a neat pamphlet of 32 pages, containing the usual information found in college catalogues. Judging from the details given, we should suppose the Institution to be in a flourishing condition. The catalogue shows that its patronage is very fair, and its prospects in this regard must be allowed, for an Oregon college, to be quite encouraging. The graduating class of 1866 in the Collegiate Department proper, consisted of nine young gentlemen. For the year just closed only one was regularly graduated, but next year the graduating class will contain quite a number. The Sophomore class for the year just closed consisted of seven who are pursuing the regular course. The Freshmen for the past year were ten in number. There is quite a large class in the preparatory department, which does well for the future of the University. In the young ladies department five were graduated at the late commencement, and the Intermediate and Junior classes in this department are quite full. The primary department, considering the number of town and other schools at Salem, is also well patronized. The total number of students in all the departments for the last Academic year was 278, of whom twenty were in the Medical Department and forty three in the Collegiate. The course of study designed to be liberal and thorough and compares favorably with that of Eastern colleges. It is hoped that the University will obtain a permanent footing, as the usefulness of any Institution of learning must be impaired by frequently changing its instructors. The Presidency of the University is, we believe, now vacant. Whether any arrangements have been made to fill it we are not informed. One or two of the Professors resigned a short time ago, but the vacancies will doubtless be filled in good time.

The trial of the assassin Surratt has ended in just such a way as might have been foreseen. Tried by a "conservative," that is, by a rebel jury, with his confessed associates in the rebel service permitted to testify in his behalf, what other result could have been expected? But this virtual termination of the case in the assassin's favor is of little consequence. The master spirits of the rebellion are all at liberty, and it is no matter about punishing the inferior agents. Jeff. Davis is just as much more guilty than Surratt, as the horrors of Andersonville for which Davis is responsible are more atrocious than the deed in which Surratt was concerned,—the murder of a single man.

Capt. Kelly of the 8th Cavalry, informs us by letter that Wm Capps was a Lieutenant in the Oregon Cavalry, enlisted not long ago in Co "C," 8th Cavalry, under the name of Wm Clark, presenting himself as an unmarried man. Soon after he was made a school master at Fort Vancouver he left leaving there it has been discovered that he has a family, a wife and two children, live near Milwaukie Oregon, and that his name is Capps, as stated above. On the night of the 10th inst., he deserted near Camp and deserted a worthy young man to go with him. Capt. Kelly knew him as an unusually "hard case."

A gambler named Peel was shot and killed at Hall on the 21st of July by a man of the same profession, known as Johnny Ball.

New wheat is selling at Walla Walla at 50 cents per bushel. Extra flour is selling at $4 to $5 per barrel.

A man named Samuel O'Donald, a packer, was drowned in Walla Walla river on the 1st inst.

Military Operations Against the Indians.

The following intelligence is from the Boise Statesman.

We have reliable information from Gen. Crook to the effect that he has overtaken two camps of Indians and killed them nearly all, to the number of about fifty. Cannot tell exactly what day, but it was between the 21st and 28th of July. While going through a canyon on the Pueblo mountains he our entered one camp, surrounded them with his troops and sent the Indians after the enemy. But few escaped. This little job being completed, he went on towards Camp Warner, and when within eight miles of that post, came upon another band. This was disposed of like the first. We have learned but few particulars. There were about fifty hostile savages killed in all. The loss was one Boise Indian killed. The troops did not fire a shot. The Indians taken from here and those from Warm Springs under Capt. Darrah, were anxious to do the fighting; they only wished to know that they were backed by the soldiers. At the time of the fight the General and his command had been marching forty-eight hours without rest. His scouts had struck the trail and were ahead of him, and he was obliged to do some strong marching to keep up with them. He left Camp Warner on the 20th in the direction of Old Camp Wright and the head of the Malheur. This is doing very well for the first few days of his campaign. If he succeeds as well during the whole time, two months, while he intends to be gone, the country will be pretty well rid of hostile Indians between here and California and Nevada.

NEW MILITARY POST.

Capt. McGregor, Acting Q. M. at Fort Boise, will to-morrow dispatch a train of ten or twelve wagons loaded with the necessary tools and supplies to build a four company post in the Malheur country. The place selected is Rattlesnake Point, about fifteen miles from Old Camp Wright, on what is called Silvia river. This is pursuant to a late order of Gen. Crook's. Company K, 23d Infantry, is now at that place awaiting the arrival of the supplies which will start to-morrow.

PURSUED.

Two men came over from John Day's last week. Thursday they were traveling from Washoe ferry over to the Junction House on the Payette and were followed by five mounted Indians, who appeared intent on possessing their scalps. Three of the Indians attempted to head off the men, while the other two followed, but the men being mounted on good horses, they easily left the Lo's behind.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 12.

Sharp Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The Johnson-Stanton correspondence is very brief. The President says "Public considerations of a high character constrain me to say that your resignation as Secretary of War will be accepted."

Stanton replies "The same considerations with the above induce me to remain at the Headquarters of this Department and constrain me not to resign the office before the next meeting of Congress." No further action has been taken, Stanton continues to transact business as usual.

Stanton's Removal

The Times' special says the President has been informed that Stanton would vacate, should the President peremptorily demand it. It is Johnson's purpose to allow the whole matter to remain in abeyance for a few days to give Stanton and his friends time to reflect. If they then persist in the refusal to resign, the President will give notice that he is thereby suspended from further execution of the functions of his office, and that the reasons for this suspension will be submitted to the senate at its next session. The subject was fully discussed in the Cabinet yesterday, and the course above indicated unanimously approved, as being within the third section of the tenure of office law. The President to-day ordered that no communication be held with Stanton as Secretary of War.

The World's special dispatch says The President has practically ignored Stanton by addressing his official communications to Col Townsend, Assistant Adjutant General, instead of Secretary Stanton.

The Surratt Case.

Judge Fisher gave a lengthy charge to the jury in the Surratt case, declaring the conspiracy to murder the President an act of treason, and that all the parties to such conspiracy, whether actually present at the commission of the crime or not, are guilty of murder. The charge is very strong against the prisoner. The jury retired to their room at a very late hour and have not yet agreed. There is as yet no prospect of the jury agreeing upon the case.

The President still denies that he received any recommendation for mercy in favor of Mrs Surratt among the papers presented him by Holt.

Pierrepont in his speech on Surratt's trial, said Holt emphatically, assured him that this recommendation was, with the other documents, presented to the President connected with the findings of the court, which tried the assassination conspirators, thus placing the question of veracity between Holt and the President.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The jury in the Surratt case has been out twenty seven hours with no prospect of a final agreement. It is rumored the jury now stand eleven to one.

The Times' special dispatch reports that a plot has been discovered to rescue Surratt while being conducted from the Court House to the jail, but its execution was prevented. It is expected that the jury will stand nine for conviction and three for acquittal. This is probably authentic.

Surratt's Jury fail to agree and are Discharged.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The Surratt jury is discharged. They could not agree.

About the Exchange of Prisoners.

The Tribune publishes Butler's report as Commissioner for the Exchange of Prisoners. It says that the Confederate authorities refused to treat with General Butler, on the ground that he commanded the colored troops. Our Government refused to admit the right of the Confederates to outlaw our officers. In March, 1864, Benton became convinced that retaliation would compel the rebels to abandon their refusal of exchange of colored. Accordingly, Grant ordered Butler to decline further negotiations and consider the determination of the rebels to make a distinction between white and colored soldiers, as a refusal on their part to agree to further exchange. In August, the rebels offered to renew on the basis of an exchange of man for man, when Grant telegraphed: "Although head on our men, Southern prisoners ought not to be exchanged. It is demanded by humanity for those lost in our ranks. Every man released becomes an active soldier against the United States. If we commence exchange, all the prisoners taken will have to fight till the South is exterminated. To release the rebel prisoners at this particular time would insure Sherman's defeat and compromise our safety here."

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Wm. E. McArthur of San Francisco is appointed special post office agent to take charge of the mails on the branch line of mail steamers between the ports of Kanagawa and Yokohama, Japan, and Shanghai, China. The Herald's special states that a Radical official recently proposed to the President to join in a plot to destroy Grant's chances for the Presidency. It is believed the proposition to place Grant in Stanton's stead as Secretary of War, thus apparently committing him to Johnson's policy, is part of the plot.

It is ascertained that Grant is virtually responsible for the delay in the removal of Sheridan, as he objects to the transfer on any officer of the rank required, on the ground of the exigencies of the public service and demands that Sheridan should be retained in his present position. It is certain that there are numerous appeals from the Presidents friends against the removal, and they have had some effect; but those who should know assume that they are sure the order will be issued before the 15th.

New York Items.

The Chauncey sailed to day with the average number of passengers, five of whom are for Yokohama and five for Shanghai. Among the passengers for San Francisco, are Gen. H. Fred. Townsend, Maj. D. H. Kinzer, Dan. Bryant and M. G. Upton, and a detachment of troops.

TALL OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW.—A day or two since we had an item about the largest newspaper ever published in America. We now have before us the first number of what is now the richest newspaper in America, with perhaps a single exception — the Philadelphia Ledger. The New York Herald is reputed to be the best paper in wealth on the Western Continent. The Public Ledger, now a mammoth double sheet, was started in 1835, with very modest pretensions, by Messrs Swain, Abell & Simmons. In the usual introductory article the publishers apologize to the public for offering, for public favor, another newspaper in a community, "already overstocked with this commodity." At that time, the country had scarcely one newspaper to where there are now tens so that, it will be seen, the publishers were mistaken, altogether, in supposing the market "overstocked." At the close of its anniversary, the proprietors say "The publication of this paper will be continued for one year at least." The paper is a folio, 16½ by 23½ inches, with 16 columns, set in fat nonpareil letter. We have only mentioned these things for the sake of comparing the Ledger of thirty-one years ago with that of to-day. We cannot just now state the size, etc., of the paper of 1867, but everybody knows that it is very large and that its proprietor expends more money on it than is devoted to any other paper in the United States, except, perhaps the New York Herald. Mr. A H Fell who gave us the initial Ledger, also gave us a pamphlet describing the new Ledger building. It contains thirty-two pages devoted exclusively to a description of the building and its furnishings. The building is brown stone with two fronts, one of 84 feet, and the other 305 feet, and five stories high. It requires the whole of this vast building to accommodate the various offices, press, composition, and editorial rooms, the latter of which, occupy 22 feet on Chestnut street and 56 feet on Sixth, arranged in suites and furnished in drawing-room style. A tour of the building—to visit each apartment—requires a walk of 1,798 yards or a little over one mile.

CHEAP FREIGHTS ON THE MONTANA ROUTE.—We copy the following from the Walla Walla Statesman of the 9th inst.: "The steamer Mary Moody, on Pen d'Oreille Lake, is carrying pack trains from Pen d'Oreille to Kootenai Landing, a distance of 35 miles, and back, (that is up and down) including cargo, for $2 per head, and to Cabinet Landing and back for $3 per head, a distance of 50 miles. The rates are about the same, or near it, as charged by common farmers on the rivers in the upper country, and trains make three days' travel in one, by taking the steamer, thereby saving in expense of hands and time, the steamer charges, and, as we understand, have much better roads and feed. Packers will certainly take advantage of such cheap rates. We are informed by the agent, H. A. Hogue, that he has succeeded in getting the steamer Missoula above Rock Island, without the slightest damage, and made a successful trip to Thompson's Landing, below Thompson's Falls, and found the river much better than was expected, making eight miles an hour up stream. The company is now fully prepared to transport freight and passengers from Pen d'Oreille to Thompson's a distance of 130 miles, through the Cœur d'Alene range of mountains without delay. Traveling time from Walla Walla to Pen d'Oreille, three to four days; thence to Thompson's (by boat) two days; thence to Helena, three to four days, making the entire trip in from eight to ten days with ease and comfort, and with a line of good stages the time can be reduced regularly to six days. The boats make the down trip from Thompson's to Pen d'Oreille in one day."

THE MAGNETISHIP.—The case which it was expected would be presented before Judge Shattuck yesterday morning, for the purpose of deciding who is entitled to the office of Marshal of this city, fizzled out. An attempt was made to make an agreed case, a statement of the material facts, and submit the matter of contest, upon it. Mr. Fredericfels drew up a statement of the facts upon which Mr. Rosenheim depends, resting in substance that Mr. Rosenheim was elected to the office by five out of nine votes of the Council, acting under the authority of the city charter. To this, Mr. Hoyt's counsel proposed to append a statement of facts, one of which was that Mr. Rosenheim voted for himself. Mr. Fredericfels refused to agree to such a statement, and as the "agreed case" was not made up. We learn that Mr. Page, one of the counsel for Mr. Rosenheim, announced to the Court, yesterday morning, the failure of the parties to agree upon a statement, and intimated that the whole question would be one for the political power of the Council to settle. Since the failure to make up a case, Mr. Hoyt has instructed his counsel that he will waive no right which he may have, and that if Mr. Rosenheim desires to pursue the matter, he must resort upon his own motion to the courts. If Mr. Rosenheim sues, he will respond; otherwise he will occupy the office as though there were no contestant.

THE DARKIES IN A MOSS.—A friend who is generally well posted in such things, says the colored people of Portland have an organization known as the Portland Colored Benevolent Association. The objects of the Society are to relieve the distressed, take care of the widows, educate the orphans, bury the dead, etc. So far, good, but recently one of the members, reduced the price of boot-blacking from two bits to one bit; whereupon the two-bit chaps began a sort of system of persecution against him. A prosecution in the Police Court grew out of this. Subsequently, charges were preferred against the one-bit man and he was expelled from the association. Having paid into the treasury a small sum of cash, the expelled man proposes now to commence suit against the society to recover the money. So, it will be seen that the blight of bilk does not consist in being a colored man and a one-bit boot-black.

BASE BALL AT OREGON CITY.—The third and decisive game in the match between the first nines of the Occidental Club, of Vancouver, and the Clackamas Club, of Oregon City, was played yesterday afternoon at Oregon city. The game occupied four hours. The following is the score:

Clubs.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Occidental.....	21	6	4	5	2	3	8	3	11	63
Clackamas.....	9	4	8	8	2	3	3	10	12	59

The Occidental Club won the first game, played at Portland, by eight runs. The Clackamas Club won the second game, played at Vancouver, by forty-nine runs. The Occidentals, yesterday, won the third game and the match, by four runs.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—The following are the proceedings in the Circuit Court, Tuesday, August 13th:

C. M. Carter vs. M. J. Owen: from justice's court up on appeal; judgment for plaintiff for $21.

Wm. Cree, admr., vs. B. Stark; continued till next term.

Wm. McMillen vs. Heirs of D. H. Lownsdale; continued.

Elfelt, Well & Co. vs H. H. Snow; judgment on verdict of jury for plaintiffs, in the sum of $5,320.

The court adjourned to Saturday the 17th at 10 o'clock A. M.

A LITTLE MORE LIVELY.—Since the arrival of the Continental, our streets have presented a more lively appearance than for some weeks. The unloading of the steamer, together with the loading of the Fidelifer, has given employment to most of the drays; the receipt and dispatch of goods by our wholesale houses, have lent a cheerful business aspect to things along the principal streets; and the larger than usual numbers of passengers arriving by river steamers, have served to fill the hotels and give a more lively appearance to the streets. In point of fact, these improved business appearances are not altogether deceptive. Though everybody, from habit, continues to growl about "dull times," the business of the city has greatly increased within the last few weeks.

FROM MORMON BASIN.—An old acquaintance of ours, Mr. Isaac Small, arrived here by the Dalles boat, yesterday, just from Mormon Basin, Eastern Oregon. He reports that a good deal of dust is being taken out this season—quite as much as during any previous summer. Several new mining camps have been discovered since last spring, mostly small ones. The greatest hindrance to success is the scarcity of water, the supply in most cases, being from small spring branches which furnish only sufficient water for very limited operations. He is of the opinion that, could water be introduced into these mines, the consequent harvest of gold dust would be an unusually large one.

WALLA WALLA PEACHES.—We received last evening, a box of Early York peaches from the orchard of Phillip Ritz, Walla Walla. If these are fair specimens of Walla Walla fruit, we agree with Mr. Ritz that "peaches and grapes are much finer flavored, raised in this (Walla Walla) valley than those of the Willamette." They are more juicy and better flavored than any we have tasted, of California growth. Mr. Ritz says: "Ten thousand bushels fruit will be raised in the Walla Walla valley this season." He has our thanks for the fruit sent.

GENERAL COURT MARTIAL.—By order of Gen Halleck a general court-martial began a session in this city yesterday, for the trial of Capt James, of Fort Stevens, Lieut Western and such other cases as may be presented. The detail for the court includes quite a number of officers of distinguished volunteer or brevet rank, among whom are Generals Davis, Elliott and French, and several Majors and captains. The presence of these officers in uniform, gives the city an unwonted martial aspect.

STOP 'EM.—Since our little growl about not getting a copy of the catalogue of the Willamet University, the catalogues have been pouring in upon us from all directions. It is a nicely printed pamphlet, and makes a creditable showing for the University; but we've got enough of 'em, and with a bow all round to our friends, we declare ourselves satisfied. We accept everybody's apologies and forgive everybody.

OPERA AT VANCOUVER.—Signor Bianchi requests us to say that his company will give an entertainment at Vancouver on Thursday evening, when Verdi's opera, Il Trovatore, will be presented. The advice we give to the people of Vancouver is, to go and hear it; the performance is of a high order and much more than worth the price of admission.

OVERBOARD.—Capt. Fisher, of the Ranger, informs us that just as he met the Pioneer Troop last evening, near Springville, a passenger fell overboard from the Troop. Both steamers immediately stopped and lowered their boats to rescue him. He swam and hallooed lustily, for about ten minutes before he was picked up by the Troop's boat.

FREIGHT FOR VICTORIA.—The steamship Fidelifer, sailed for Victoria at 7 o'clock last evening, carrying the following freight: 2,000 bricks, 29 pkgs merchandise, 2,600 qr sks flour, 7 bf bbls butter, 53 sks wheat, 6 sks bacon, 60 boxes summer fruit, 21 cases lard, 115 sks middlings, and 230 bags oats.

BENEFIT OF SIGNOR BIANCHI.—To-night, Signor Bianchi takes a complimentary benefit at Oro Fino, on which occasion will be presented Donizetti's opera, Lucia Di Lammermoor. After this, Signorina Bellini will sing in English the celebrated Cavatina, from Wallace's opera of Lurline.

TREASURE RECEIPT.—Wells, Fargo & Co., received yesterday from the upper Columbia river, $10,000 in treasure.

THE BARK RIVAL.—The bark Rival left the dock at the lower end of the city yesterday, and dropped down to St. Johns to take on 30,000 staves. When these are got on board, she will go to Oak Point and complete her cargo with lumber for San Francisco.

THE OPERA TROUPE AT PALEM.—The Salem Press speaks in very complimentary terms of the Buckley Opera Troupe, and regrets that the people of Salem did not attend the performances in greater numbers. The company did not realize expenses.

REPORTED KILLED.—There is a report current in town, that James Vance, well known here some months since as a steamship runner, was recently shot and killed at Rouse river.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—The Senator, yesterday, brought only a light freight, consisting of 6 boxes eggs 2 boxes apples, 257 qr sks flour and 1 pig holding.

CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES AND FRUIT.—Our market is now well supplied with vegetables and summer fruit, from California—peaches, melons, sweet potatoes, etc.

BARMAN BROS. have fine teas and undercoats.

THE COLVILLE MAIL.—The Walla Walla Statesman has the following:

Postmaster Johnson has received instructions from the Department to have the Colville mail discontinued, unless he can contract to have it carried at a cost not to exceed $1,500 per annum. The proposition is simply absurd, and only shows the profound ignorance of the Washington authorities in all that relates to this country. Two years since the contract was awarded to A. J. Rigeon at $1,000, but at that figure it was a dead loss and the contract was thrown up. Subsequently it was carried under a temporary arrangement, but with the receipt of this order from the Department the service ceases entirely. There is a military post in Colville Valley with which the Government must communicate, and to do this by means of special express will involve an outlay of double or treble the sum offered for carrying the mail. This is literally an illustration of "penny wise and pound foolish" policy. Early in the week Postal Agent Brooks was at Walla Walla, and on being apprised of the blunder of the Department, promised to write to Washington and have the error corrected. Meantime our Colville friends will be denied everything in the shape of postal "conveniences."

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M DuRell, President. C. W Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

PERFECTLY ENRAPTURING.—Such were our feelings as we stepped into the Music and Art Gallery of W. T. SHANAHAN, on First street, a few days since, and listened to the delightful tones and harmony which came from one of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs. From the soft breathing flute tones to the thundering bass of the pipe organ, all was equally free and sweet. And why is it that other makers cannot produce instruments like these? Mason & Hamlin were the first to introduce the Cabinet Organ, and have gained such world-wide notoriety that it requires the work of two large factories to supply the demand for these valuable instruments.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!
THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!
Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!
Read the Certificates:

RHEUMATISM CURED!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.
I HAVE SUFFERED A LONG TIME WITH RHEUmatic Pains, and until now have found nothing to relieve me. To-day Mr. J. G. Rennick called at my store and assured me that he could cure me in a few minutes. I thought he was mistaken, and laughed at him, but found to my surprise that a few moments after the application of the SITKA LINIMENT, I was relieved of my pains, and I am now improving very fast. I now believe it will cure me in a few days. For further information call at my store, No. 182 First street.
F. WEGNER.

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.
I was at Mr. Wegner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J G RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.
I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.
I. MITCHELL.
I was present and know the above to be true, and am willing to swear to it.
L. QUIVEY.

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.
For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them.

I've been Thinking.

I've been thinking, I've been thinking,
What a glorious world were this,
Did folks mind their own business more,
And mind their neighbors less
For instance, you and I my friend
Are sadly prone to talk
Of matters that concern us not,
And others follow suit

I've been thinking, if we'd begin
To mind our own affairs,
That possibly our neighbors might
Contrive to manage theirs
We've faults enough at home to mend—
It may be so with others
It would seem strange, if it were not,
Since all mankind are brothers.

Oh! would that we had charity
For every man and woman,
Forgiveness is the mark of those
Who know "to err is human"
Then let us banish jealousy—
Let's lift one fallen brother,
And as we journey down life's road,
"Do good to one another"

Registration—Letter from Gen. Sickles.

Gen. Sickles has addressed the following letter to Senator Trumbull:

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 5th, 1867.

My Dear Sir I have decided not to begin registration in this district until Congress determines who shall be registered. I trust, therefore, that it will be the pleasure of Congress to extend the time for the completion of my registration, to, say October or November. If I proceed now and disregard the wishes of the President, my action would be regarded as insubordination. If I follow his instructions, they would probably be registered not eligible, according to the true interpretations of the acts of Congress. If it is meant that all who have held any office, Federal, State or municipal, having taken an oath of office to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in rebellion, or given aid or comfort, etc., are disfranchised, this should be expressly declared, otherwise if left to construction it may be held that no other officers are included than those classes enumerated in article six of the Constitution, and that even as to these a full pardon removes the disqualification. If it be meant to exclude lawyers, they should be expressly mentioned or else described by some classification as for example After the word "office," all licensed calling, employment or profession, if otherwise, if the eligibility of lawyers be left to construction, it may be held that a public officer, although a functionary of a Court or oth[illegible] Judicial body. In fact, we have now in operation two independent systems of reconstruction, originating in two different sources, and engrafted upon the President's plan of reconstruction.

The first Congressional plan is expressed in the proposed Constitutional Amendment, leaving suffrages to be regulated by the several States, and imposing upon certain classes of persons disqualifications for a time as a punishment for rebellion, and a safeguard for the future. That plan, having been refused by the several States, Congress passed the Reconstruction Act, which forms a second system of reconstruction, entirely distinct in principle and plan from the former. In the second plan Congress assumes control of the question of suffrage, which it reserved to all who can take a test oath, and forces the disqualifications for crime which have been the penal and preventive sections of the first plan. Now it is to me but the more conservative guarantee against reaction in the readmission made to the legal voters by the enfranchisement of the colored people. The provision for the disqualification of the more active leaders is the true solution. I believe we can work with universal suffrage a general amnesty, excepting the exceptions A more liberal amnesty by judgment, essential to the [illegible] system of reconstruction It will enlarge the [illegible] popular choice for the important July and October and Legislative Departments of the State governments, otherwise inconveniently [illegible] classes, very few of whom are at the [illegible] The people can surely be entrusted to judge and select from those who took part in the rebellion the men at once qualified and sincere in their adhesion to the new order of things So in [illegible] eligible to office, will have motives sufficiently considerable with reconstruction, and I suppose the views of the majority Now, in the [illegible] ability and experience is needed for the United Government [illegible] and it is truly unfortunate that at such a moment nearly all who have anything of public character are disfranchised, and [illegible] such as judicial stations. There is no treatment of general suffrage to recalcitrant parts [illegible] The experiment fails, it is more likely to [illegible] the inability of the people to [illegible] and could assure us [illegible] would have been advantageous as perhaps [illegible] many disaffected persons [illegible] Judges, Sheriffs and Magistrates to the [illegible] section of the act of March [illegible] successors could have been [illegible] who are eligible to office and [illegible] possession now of a wider field of [illegible] as one of the most effective [illegible] execution of the military authority confided to District Commanders. As it is, I find myself prevented, as will the people by and by from selecting for this public service men of aptitude and character, whose repentance is as certain as the devotion of the most consistent loyalist in truth this zeal of [illegible] of the Courts arraigns the discretion of many of the faithful With reference to other practical questions it might be useful if Congress, by one of its Committees interrogated the commanding officers of the several districts upon the operation of the Reconstruction acts and the further legislation required Very respectfully,

D. E. SICKLES.

Hon. Lyman Trumbull, Chairman of Judiciary Committee United States Senate.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY.—A short time ago, while some workmen were excavating a cellar in Pike township Monroe county, Ind., they struck what at first appeared to be a solid ledge of rock, but, sinking down to test one of their number began idly to pick at an apparent fissure, when a piece of stone nearly two feet square, disappeared with a dull thump. The men set eagerly to work, and removing the bottom of the pit, discovered a chamber with a six-foot ceiling, and some eighteen by twenty five feet within the walls, which were of solid and neatly seamed stone work. Ranged in rows around were rudely constructed platforms, and [illegible] shelves, each with tomahawk and [illegible] heads at the sides, ear-rings and bracelets [illegible] strewn where they dropped, and piles of what appeared to have been furs in the centre of the platform, each pile crumbling to dust as soon as exposed to the light. A number of tools, made of copper, and hardened equal to the best cast steel were also unearthed and fresh discoveries are constantly being made.

HANDICAPPY.—An Eastern journal thus coolly discusses a Mexican rumor, which never reached this side of the continent.

The report that the Mexican authorities have pickled the head of Maximilian in brine of alcohol, and has sent it to the Emperor Napoleon with the legend on its case—"It is thus America treats her go princes"—has not yet been sufficiently confirmed, and we hope, for the sake of humanity may prove untrue. It would be an evil cause for Prince Alfred of England, who is designed to be Dominator of the new Dominion of the Canadas—the present Governor merely acting as a warming pan," until the Prince shall be ready for his seat. We most earnestly trust that the Mexicans have not pickled Maximilian's head or any other part of him, as such an outrage might keep away Prince Alfred from any attempt to settle himself in royal state on this side of the Atlantic

THE NORTH SCHLESWIG QUESTION.—The Dagbland of Copenhagen, in its French review, says that the guarantees demanded by Prussia for the German inhabitants of North Schleswig, form only a subordinate part of the question. The negotiations in reality turn upon the recovery of Alsen and Duppell. The writer points out that the Danish Government could not possibly with draw behind the national lines so plainly marked out by the elections of the North German Parliament. The Schleswig Danes, says the Dagbland, would prefer the common lot of slavery until the great day of liberation should come.

The Paris Patrie says that although the Schleswig question may have become wearisome to the public, yet the Danes still command the entire sympathy of the French

REPUBLICAN VOTE.—The result of the registration in Virginia thus far shows that the whites are indifferent, and that the negroes are everywhere energetic and vigilant. John Minor Botts and other Virginia politicians calculate that the black and white Republicans together will carry the State by at least 15,000 majority If there is not a better disposition to register manifested by the whites, the Republican majority will reach 20,000 or 25,000

General Grant has made another speech He was introduced to the citizens of Wheeling by Governor Boreman, at the conclusion of whose remarks it began to rain a little The anxiously awaited reply of the great chief was, "Gentlemen, I hope you won't stay in the rain long."

The Boston Advertiser thinks that the New Jersey Ball, who was first charged with appropriating the poetry of Akers, is now proved to have appropriated acres of poetry. Mrs. Hemans is one victim, as shown by new discoveries.

Politics in Virginia

The Richmond New Nation indulges in the following prognostications of the results of the coming election in Virginia

The election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention will result in an overwhelming radical triumph. Two-thirds, at least, of the delegates will be men of radical tendencies, and pledged to carry out the principles of our elevated radicalism By radicalism we mean something more than simply accepting the situation because we are compelled to do so We mean an adoption of the doctrines of universal suffrage because it is right, just and wise to and of itself, because that is no other way can we so securely secure the prosperity of the State and promote the happiness of the nation We care very little for a mere nominal conservative Union Republican triumph If that was all that is involved in the contest we would withdraw from it immediately We do care however, for a thorough radical Republican triumph For that we have long labored, shall continue to labor until success crowns our efforts That success, we are happy to say, is sure at the election soon to come off The colored vote is radical, and will be cast solidly for the most ultra radical candidates No half and half men will ever get the support of that class of voters. Added to a solid colored vote we shall have one third of the white vote. We know whereof we speak when we make this assertion The poor Confederate soldier who returned penniless from the army will vote a radical ticket. The poor white man who has not the property to school his little ones will vote the ultra radical ticket. The intelligent, educated white man who desires a happy and prosperous future for old Virginia will vote the radical ticket And they will vote that ticket because they know that radicalism will assuredly cause the State to furnish, without money and without price, means of an education sufficient to fit every person within its jurisdiction for the efficient and intelligent discharge of all the duties of a citizen of an enlightened commonwealth, and to fill any office or position in it. They will vote that ticket, because they know radicalism will abolish the present odious and oppressive poll taxes, and compel the property to pay the cost of schools, road building, and all other expenses of the Government. They will vote the radical ticket because they know no worse rule than they have submitted to heretofore can be imposed upon them by radicalism. We say, therefore, Virginia will surely elect radical men to office, and none but such. Respectable conservatism is dead and buried in the Old Dominion. God grant that there may be no resurrection in the future.

FOR IRISHMEN TO READ.—The loyal paper, styled the Irish Republic, has been established at Chicago. Although it has only reached its eleventh or twelfth number, its circulation is said to be immense. It is conducted by Irishmen, and is eloquently devoted to the cause of Irish and American freedom. The following extract from an able article addressed to Irish Americans, will furnish an idea of its general tone and temper. We ask that our Irish citizens may read and ponder well its facts:

Some of our people are rebels for the sake of rebellion. The disease has been so long in the blood that it has become chronic, We verily believe that if some of our countrymen, and some of the leading ones at that, were in heaven during the great rebellion, they would have unhesitatingly sided with Satan himself. Anything in opposition to established authority.

It was this very spirit that drove so many of our countrymen into the ranks of the Confederate army during the recent war, and made so many, living under the protection of the stars and stripes, sympathize with the rebels. Now, this was all wrong; but it was a mistaken sense of right that drove our people to such a course.

Rebellion is only justifiable against tyranny When people become oppressed to that degree that liberty and happiness have been wrenched from them, and whips and chains substituted, then does rebellion become a duty. But while rebellion against tyranny is holy, rebellion against liberty is the unholy work of the foulest fiends.

Why, then, will so many of our countrymen persist in tracing analogies between Ireland and the South? Why will they persist in saying to us: You want freedom for Ireland, but won't let the South do what she likes? What can you do against the British Government, when the South, with all her facilities for successful rebellion, was put down? With these, and like questions, we are met at every corner.

We say, once more, that we do not allow the cause of Ireland to be compared to the cause of the South. The one is the cause of liberty; the other was the cause of slavery. Ireland is a separate and distinct nation. The love of independence is as plainly set upon her face by the hand of God, as on that of England, or France, or Italy. Her people are a distinct race, separated by blood and history, by likes and dislikes, from the English people. Ireland had her Government for centuries when the Briton was a painted savage. England took possession, and holds it this day, by fraud, The people of Ireland have never acknowledged, nor do they acknowledge to day, the authority of England. They have protested for seven hundred years, by words and blows, against England's usurpations. And greatest of all, the interests of the two countries are diametrically opposed. "England fattens on our decay." What cause could the South show for rebellion, such as those of Ireland?

A Richmond, (Va) dispatch of July 9th, contains the following:

A movement has been inaugurated here to enlarge the present police force by a number of colored members. The corporate limits of the city were extended over a large section embracing an area of fifty or sixty squares, hitherto in the county of Henrico, by the last Legislature. This will cause an additional police force, and by the direction of leading officials and others here, the names of some twenty intelligent and active colored men, some of whom served in the Union army, have been enrolled as candidates for the new positions. The present members of the force will be entirely averse to this proceeding, and it is possible that many may resign because of objections to serve with colored men. This will, however, create fresh vacancies, and cause the appointment of other colored men until the matter becomes settled.

A poetical young gardener somewhere in the South, while despondent from the effects of the late unseasonable weather, gets off the following mellifluous strain:

Onion garden bed reclining,
Beats a youth his aching head,
Cauliflowers, to! weeds confront me;
Lettuce house, he sadly said
Carrots out the stoutest manhood,
Peas my wearied soul doth need,
Beau, O! otatis for me hereafter,
Also my heart will go to seed.

Northampton is not slow to make use of the new name and fame which Beecher is giving it in the Ledger, and already revels in a new boarding house called "Norwood Hall."
